Code of Good Funeral Practices

As Funeral Directors our calling imposes upon us a special responsibility to those we serve, and to the public at large, chief among them is the obligation to inform the public so that everyone can make knowledgeable decisions about the final arrangements of their deceased loved ones.

To help you understand.....It is your right, and our desire, that you have as complete an understanding as possible regarding the cost of your services. The biggest factor is the time element in terms of our personnel and the use of the funeral home facilities. The maintenance of this service is unending; that is, it must be available 24 hours every day of the year. Many phases of our work are apparent while others are not. It is important to realize that no two funerals are exactly alike. Traditions, customs, social standing, personal feelings, financial ability and a multitude of other factors influence each funeral. Our services must conform to each individual family's wishes and their personal and religious needs.

OUTER BURIAL CONTAINERS

These Prices are effective January 1, 2024, but are subject to change without notice.

In most areas of the country, state or local law does not require that you buy a container to surround the casket in the grave. However, many cemeteries require that you have such a container so that the grave will not sink in. Either a grave liner or a burial vault will satisfy these requirements.
